Kateryna Vasylivna drew general attention to her canvases, impressing the most discerning connoisseurs and connoisseurs with the vivid originality and poetic power of her works. It was as if she was telling the world how talented her people are, how deeply developed their aesthetic sense is, what a receptive soul to everything beautiful in life.

KATERYNA BILOKUR REPRESENTATIVE OF FOLK DECORATIVE PAINTING

"Oh, how joyful, how there is an opportunity to work every day: neither old age nor loneliness is felt, because something new, beautiful and wonderful grows from under the brush every day on the canvas," wrote Kateryna Bilokur. Her biography is like a novel full of drama, where there was unrequited love and someone's misunderstanding, where there were conflicts with close people, and the reason for everything was the same obsession, insurmountable devotion to the artistic calling.
