Nyc is famous not only for excitement, parties, drinking, and freedom but also for beautiful places. Our drivers will surely take you there. We know unique locations where you can be alone and are guaranteed not to be annoying tourists.

We advise you to visit the following:

Roosevelt Island is a place that locals forget or don't even know about—located between Manhattan and Queens. Getting there is difficult, even if you have a map of the metro and all the streets, and we will bring you and tell you everything about this place.

Far Rockaway Beach - a long slope of sand on the shores of a gorgeous ocean; what could be better? The only downside to this place is the distance. Using the metro, you will get there in no less than two hours, by car and even more, given traffic jams. Our drivers will go around all the traffic jams and bring you here quickly and comfortably.

Inwood Park - You won't be able to be alone here, as this is the second-largest park in Manhattan. But you will enjoy what nature has created, not people. There are many calm, picturesque, and simply entourage places in NYC. The main thing is to look. We advise you to avoid subway stations and noisy streets because NYC cannot live without parties.
