CABINET FEATURES

Durability

Along with style and design, durability is also something that we emphasize when manufacturing our cabinets. It's no exception when it comes to our European Light Wood cabinets. They're designed to last and are built with all the tests and challenges that they will face in mind.

The decorative and luxurious surface wood is fully supported by heavy duty plywood, which provides additional strength and support for each increased durability and longevity. This focus is why our cabinets are such a great investment for your home. Simply, they're sure to last and you can enjoy them for years to come.

Wood

High quality craftsmanship and design is just part of the reason why our cabinets can so effectively stand the test of time. There's also the wood we use. Birch wood is well known for its natural design appeal and light attractive grain. What's more important for us, however, is that it offers a higher level of durability and greater resistance to decay. This, when complimented with the quality work that we do, is how you can be sure that your new cabinets will have the toughness and durability that's needed to survive all the challenges they will face.

Design process

Whether you are ordering new cabinets for your home or need them on your next job site, we know you don't have time to deal with any hassles. Our design process was developed with this in mind. Our European Light Wood cabinets, like our full range, are cleverly designed to facilitate true convenience. As such, they can be shipped hassle free to any location and are so very easy to assemble once they arrive. So, the whole process of getting them shipped and installed is seriously convenient. There's no stress or hassle involved.

Features

One of the elements that makes our range of cabinets the superior option is the included range of amazing features. Our European Light Wood cabinets not only have built in reinforced L brackets, which provide you with greater flexibility when it comes to the type of countertop you can install, but also have easy to remove drawers, which makes maintenance, such as cleaning, quick and easy. The metal drawers' glides are also cleverly concealed, so that you'll only ever get to see and enjoy the luxurious surface wood and stylish finish. And it only really gets better from there.
