

FIVE WAYS TO SPEND WINTER VACATION

Soon, schools will start their winter vacation. Have you thought about what you'll be doing during the vacation? Once you're well rested, it's time to indulge in the fun that only this time of year can offer. No matter what you're celebrating, there are plenty of ways to enjoy the city and the season, even during COVID-19. Here are a few ways to make the most of your winter vacation.

1. TRY SOME DELICIOUS TORONTO FOOD

These days, restaurants in Toronto offer take-out food, even the most expensive restaurants. Toronto has hundreds of Christmas-themed restaurants with delicious specials throughout the year. If you're looking for new restaurants, check out our ranking of Toronto restaurants on BlogTO.

2. ENJOY WINTER ACTIVITIES

Even if it's cold outside, you can have a great time outdoors if you're well protected. You can go ice skating at Nathan Phillips Square in the heart of downtown Toronto, where you can also rent skates and winter gear. Too far to drive? There are plenty of other outdoor rinks waiting for you. Check out the official city listings. And if you want something less formal, rough and rowdy, try visiting Toronto's toboggan hills. Also try something out of the ordinary, like snowshoeing. A full list of outdoor winter activities can be found on the city's website.

3. GO TO A WINTER MARKET

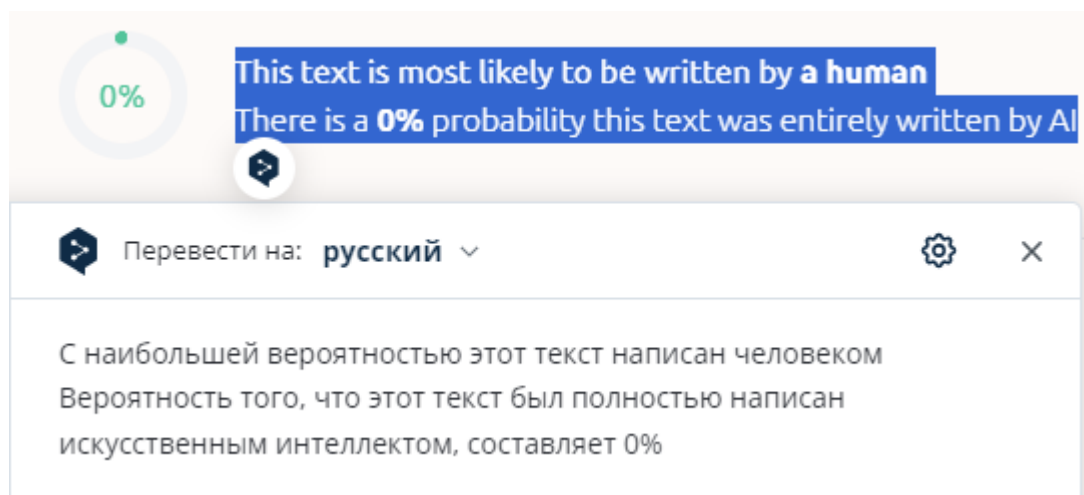

For some people, going to the market during the holidays to buy fresh produce or gifts has become an annual tradition. Whether you've been there before or want to try it for the first time, Toronto has plenty of markets to choose from, and since they're outdoors, they're pandemic-resistant. Kensington Market, Winter Village Market, historic St. Lawrence Market (with home delivery!).

4. VISIT WONDERLAND

This beautiful year, Canada's Wonderland plans to delight visitors with Winterfest through December 31, 2021. The amusement park will be transformed into a winter fairy tale, just like from a Christmas cartoon! Fireworks, costumes and decorations will be the main attributes of our event. By the way, we have not forgotten about tasty treats, especially sweets. And also, all this will take place outside, in the fresh air, which is certainly atmospheric.

5. PREPARE FOR THE NEW SCHOOL YEAR

Start your vacation by throwing out all the unnecessary stuff and clutter in your space. This will help clear your mind and get into the holiday spirit. You should also sort through all your school papers, clothes and belongings to make room for the start of the new semester.
