Payme

It's a startup from a major bank, a series of debit and credit cards for entrepreneurs, self-employed and freelancers.

In addition to monetary transactions, the service has a system a secure document management system.

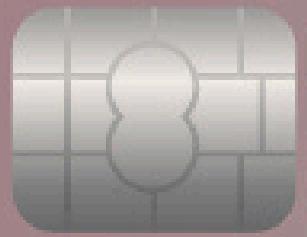

We are aimed at young entrepreneurs who don't like in finances and documents, those guys who are making the world a better place with their projects make the world a better place.

We're part of the mid-price segment of the market, our services are medium in cost and high in quality.
